THE BRAND PORTFOLIO OF CHARLES GIRARDIER

RENAISSANCE OF CHARLES GIRARDIER

A Word from Patrick A. Ulm, CEO

It is both a pleasure and a privilege to welcome you into the world of Charles Girardier sharing with you the journey of a centuries-old watchmaking legacy reborn.

A pleasure because there is nothing more gratifying than to share a passion. As much as it records the details of history, the brand portfolio that is now in your hands captures the pioneer spirit that made Girardier the Elder part of the Geneva's watchmaking elite at a time when the city was coming into its own as the epicenter of Haute Horlogerie.

That same pioneer spirit is at the core of the revival that began in 2018

The privilege comes from being able to tell our storry to lovers of fine watchmaking, lovers of exceptional timepieces

The in-house movement of the new Collection "Plénitude" developed in the watchmaking hub in Buchs this year perfectly illustrate this commitment.

Join us in our pursue of Excellence!

INTRODUCTION

Charles Antoine Girardier (1759-1839) often referred to as "Girardier the Elder," was an influential and pioneer master watchmaker who left an indelible mark on the watchmaking industry. Working in Geneva between the latter half of the 18th century and the early 19th century, he was particularly renowned and celebrated for his work on complicated timepieces, particularly those featuring Jacquemart Automaton and Quarter Minute Repeater Complications. These features were not only technically impressive but also added a layer of visual intrigue to his pieces by using impressive traditional watchmaking decorations such as hand engraving, guilloche, arabesque artistry and enamel painting that are truly one-of-a-kind.

A very rare pocket watch by Girardier l'aîné with Jacquemart automaton and quarter minute repeater dated 1815

His unwavering commitment to authenticity and uniqueness earned him widespread recognition, and he was commissioned to create timepieces for prominent figures of his time, including royalty and political leaders.

Despite his significant contributions, Girardier's name remained dormant for almost two centuries after his death. It wasn't until 2018 that the brand was revived by Patrick A. Ulm, a Geneva-born entrepreneur, who recognized the historical importance of Girardier's work and aimed to continue his legacy by creating timepieces that combined traditional craftsmanship with modern Charles Girardier's passion for watchmaking, his pioneer spirit, and his commitment to craftsmanship have left a lasting impact on the watchmaking industry. His legacy lives on through the brand that bears his name, continuing to delight watch enthusiasts around the world by drawing inspiration from his pocket watches that are either showcased in museums or owned by collectors.

SUMMARY OF OUR PORTFOLIO

Charles Girardier (1759-1839), a Geneva watchmaker, achieved great success in the watchmaking industry due to his outstanding skill and commitment to craftsmanship.

His pocket watches are famous for their detailed craftsmanship, intricate design elements, and advanced mechanisms such as Jacquemart Automaton and Quarter Minute Repeater. In 2018, Patrick A. Ulm established a brand honoring the legacy of Charles Girardier by creating timepieces that combined traditional craftsmanship with modern technology drawing inspiration from pocket watches that are either showcased in museums or owned by collectors.

The Charles Girardier House offers unique timepieces that embody sophistication, elegance, and innovation while leading the industry of contemporary watchmaking artwork. For those who appreciate the art of watchmaking, a Charles Girardier timepiece is not just an accessory, but a masterpiece.

Museum of Geneva Inventory N.0075

Patrick A. Ulm's search for the history of master watchmaker Charles Girardier led him on an exciting journey from Devon to Geneva and resulted in the creation of several remarkable collections, including Mysterious Signature, Magic 8 and Plenitude.

In 2020, Charles Girardier was awarded the Ladies' Complication Watch Prize at the Illustrious Grand Prix d'Horlogerie de Genève, followed by an invitation to participate in Only Watch 2021.

The fourth collection named Plenitude will feature an in-house caliber with a power reserve display including a cone used in pocket watches and is set to be released in Spring 2024.

Charles Girardier House

The Charles Girardier House is a brand dedicated to bringing premium timepieces to the world of contemporary watchmaking. Known for their sophistication, elegance, and innovation, these watches are truly works of art. With a focus on the details, from the intricate movements to the exquisite designs, the Charles Girardier House has become a leader in the industry. Their creations are the embodiment of a timeless appeal that appeals to even the most discerning of collectors. As you strap on one of these bespoke timepieces, you can't help but feel a sense of pride in owning a piece of centuries old history and high luxury.

Patrick A. Ulm's passion for watchmaking and history drove him on a fascinating investigation to uncover the story of Charles Girardier, a legendary master watchmaker whose legacy had long been shrouded in mystery. From the picturesque hills of Devon, England, Ulm traversed to the quaint streets of Geneva, Switzerland, in his quest to find clues and unravel the enigma behind Girardier's life.

This tireless pursuit bore fruit, and Ulm went on to create several stunning collections, including the Mysterious Signature, Plenitude and Magic 8, that pay tribute to Girardier's remarkable craftsmanship and innovative spirit. Ulm's odyssey is a testament to the thrill of discovery and the joy of uncovering hidden gems that are waiting to be found.

In 2018, at Greenway, Agatha Christie's holiday home in Devon, England, Swiss entrepreneur Patrick A. Ulm saw a pocket watch in this museum display that caught his interest.

Girardier pocket watch dated 1800 Animated Hunting Scene

He was captivated by the particular combination of ornament, complication, animation, and sweeping sense of movement that is unique to Charles Girardier. Patrick A. was inspired to learn more about the works of the Elder from the moment he laid eyes on them. To gather information, he visited museums in Paris and Geneva that also showcased the masterpieces of the Elder.

Charles Girardier House has certainly made a name for himself in the world of watchmaking. In 2020, the brand was awarded the Ladies' Complication Watch Prize at the Prestigious Grand Prix d'Horlogerie de Genève (GPHG). This impressive achievement showcased talent and dedication to creating stunning timepieces.

Not one to rest on his laurels, Girardier was invited to participate in Only Watch 2021, a charity auction featuring top watch manufacturers from around the world. It's clear that Girardier's innovative designs and exceptional craftsmanship have earned CG a place among the best among the most respected independent brands. We can't wait to see what CG will do next.

Watch enthusiasts can mark their calendars for Spring 2024 as a new collection of timepieces is about to hit the market. What's special about this release? Well, for starters, it features an in-house movement that is sure to impress even the most discerning of watch aficionados. This movement includes a cone that was famously used in pocket watches, making it a true nod to horological history. But not only does it pay homage to the past, it also incorporates modern technology with a power reserve display feature. Needless to say, this upcoming release is eagerly awaited in the watch world.

Girardier Watches: Crafting Timepieces of Unrivaled Elegance and Excellence

The unique style of Charles Girardier's watches is defined by the use of stunning colors, as well as a combination of ornamentation such as arabesque artistry and innovative animation, imbuing each Charles Girardier timepiece with the exceptional hallmarks of Fine Watchmaking - from the technical aspects to the aesthetics and finishing.

Technical mastery and poetic creativity

In the world of luxury timepieces, few brands can compare to Charles Girardier. Founded in 2018, this Swiss watchmaking Brand has quickly become a favorite among watch enthusiasts and collectors alike. With a focus on technical mastery and poetic creativity, Charles Girardier produces some of the most unique and innovative timepieces available on the market today drawing inspiration from pocket watches that are either showcased in museums or owned by collectors.

The Magic 8 collection is a stunning example of the artistry and innovation that defines the Charles Girardier House. Featuring a range of elegant and sophisticated timepieces, this collection is sure to appeal to even the most discerning collector. One of the standout pieces in this collection is the Cobalt Blue variant, which features a breathtaking gradient dial and a captivating double second mechanism with an 8 feature.

But it's not just the design of the Magic 8 collection that is impressive. Each watch is crafted with meticulous attention to detail, using only the finest materials and the most advanced techniques. The self-winding movement is decorated with Clous de Paris Motif, while the Caliber CG8080 boasts 35 jewels and 278 components. Circular graining, black NAC galvanic treatment, chamfered and hand-polished bridges.

Enamel "en Camaïeu" and double second featuring an 8 composing and decomposing

The dial of the Cobalt Blue variant is equally impressive, featuring enamel in Camaieu decoration, hour and minute hands in Dauphine style, and a double second feature with an 8. The case is made from polished Grade 5 Titanium and measures 41mm in diameter and 12.8mm in thickness. The strap is hand-sewn in calf leather and comes with micrometric watch band adjustment with 4 settings. The watch also comes with a steel deploying clasp.
